Library Rules and Regulations

1. For security reasons, brief cases and bags cannot be taken into the library. They must be checked in at the front desk upon arrival.
2. Pencils ONLY may be used. If you do not have one, one will be provided to you.
3. Food and drink may only be consumed in the kitchen area.
4. All books, repertoires, index cards and records must be used within the section to which they belong and on no account are to be carried into another section of the library. No books, repertoires, index cards, magazine, manuscripts, microfilms, microfiches, CD-ROMs, computers or any other material belonging to the Society may be removed from the building. Care should be taken in handling all such materials, and under no circumstances should the Society's records be written upon. Open books should not be laid face down, nor on top of one another.
5. Books available through the circulating library must be check out at the front desk.
6. Photocopies of some records may be made. The library assistants will help you and a nominal per page copying charge will be applied.
7. Volunteer Librarians are on duty to assist researchers in using the collections. They should not be asked to conduct searches which can reasonably be undertaken by the member concerned. If you require more intensive assistance, our research staff is available on a fee basis. All remunerations go to the Society's general fund.
8. Mobile phones, pagers and any other communication devises must be switched off before entering the building and remain off while you are conducting your research.

I have read the rules and regulations governing the use of the library and I agree to abide by them. I understand that the library is for the mutual benefit of all members. Therefore I further agree to report any infraction of the rules and regulations that I may observe committed by others.
