

CALL FOR PAPERS
17th New England Regional Genealogical Conference
3-6 May 2023
MassMutual Center, Springfield, MA

Missing Branches Are Not the End of the Line!

Presentation proposals are welcome from now until 12:00 noon eastern time on 1 March 2022 for the 17th New England Regional Genealogical Conference to be held 3-6 May 2023 in Springfield, MA.

This exciting conference will emphasize resources, methodologies, and social history that help fill in the missing branches on a family tree.

We are looking for:

- One-hour lectures, including questions & answers, during the conference or for presentations in a Wednesday pre-conference event.
- Mealtime presentations of 45 minutes
- Two-hour workshops (a session in which all participants get the opportunity to utilize the new methodology, tools, website, or technique under the tutelage of the presenter) with hands-on activities in one of these formats:
  - Guided Research
  - Flipped Classroom
  - I do, We do, You do
- Wednesday's pre-conference event will feature 4 session tracks on the following topics, with the options for other tracks depending upon the submissions received:
  - Sharing Your Research Results – videos, articles, books, conversations, gifts
  - Military Research
  - Technical tools that evolved or emerged during the pandemic
  - Advanced uses for DNA research (things for those who started using DNA at least six years ago)

In keeping with our Conference theme, "Missing Branches Are Not the End of the Line" successful proposals will address at least one of these topics:

- Something requested by our attendees from the list at the right
- DNA methodologies, case studies, etc.
- New England records and repositories

All presenters receive one complimentary conference registration. NERGC does not cover travel, hotel, or per diem expenses. NERGC also does not provide a projector for the speaker's use during presentations. Remuneration is based on $225 per hour with a bonus for timely submission of syllabus material that meets NERGC guidelines.

We are considering proposals from speakers who prefer to appear virtually. This would be a live presentation, with the speaker located remotely. As this is an in-person event, these presentations, may not be included in the final program. Please indicate this as your preference when completing the portal form.

We are also asking that you consider carefully the audience level you associate with your presentation. Our portal offers the following levels:

- Beginner – Someone new to this topic, ethnicity, or record type
- Intermediate – Someone with some experience in this topic, ethnicity, or record type
- Advanced – Someone with general experience in this topic, ethnicity, or record type
- Experienced – Someone with widespread experience in this topic, ethnicity, or record type
- Historical – More informational and not related to research experience

You must submit your lecture and workshop proposals through the NERGC Program Portal. This mechanism permits you to enter up to six presentation proposals. Go to our portal at: <https://nergc.org/2021-conference-2/call-for-papers/> to submit your proposals.

Enter for each proposal:

- Speaker's full name, address, email, and telephone numbers.
- Brief speaker biography (50 words or less) for Conference brochure.
- Your social media links (to assist with conference publicity)
- Value added considerations (ways that your presence will help enhance the attendee experience)
- Requirements such as audio/visual, whiteboards, or other special requirements.
- Previous lecture experience.
- Title (limited to eight words).
- Short lecture summary (limited to 60 words) for conference website/brochure
- Comprehensive outline or abstract connecting to Conference theme.
